Alla Marcia Maestoso.

PIANO.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Alla Marcia Maestoso'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal line enters with the lyrics 'O Can - a - da! Our Ter'.

Lyrics:

"To-day Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond is known the world over as the writer of Songs—words and music which have crept into the hearts of millions."—Edith Brown Kirkwood (in The Chicago Tribune).

P. HILSDORFER, pianist, pianist, poetess, composer, interpreter, Mrs. Bond began the publication of her own productions and from the Bond Shop in Chicago there issue every year hundreds of thousands of her songs. . . . She was the first woman to issue songs in book groups and she is the only woman in the world—and perhaps the only person—who combines within her own shop the entire regime of the musician from the artist, the poet, the musician and the business view points.

Written by Edith Brown Kirkwood of The Chicago Tribune.

APPRECIATIONS . . .

"I consider your songs so distinctive that it becomes a pleasurable duty for me to sing them myself."

Sincerely your friend,
(Signed) David Bispham.
London, June 4th, 1905.

"While there may be more pretentious and more etriest schools in our strong young country, no one has written more beautiful melodies or sung herself more completely into the hearts of American music lovers than has Mrs. Jacobs-Bond. The poetry, idealism and sympathetic beauty of her songs are irresistible."

(Signed) William H. Sherwood.
Chicago, May 4th, 1904.

"I am very fond of violets and of sweet, fresh morning glads. That is why I like your little songs. You have the fragrance of the rose and the poet; you see deep. Simple things are difficult. These work in the world for such as you."

Many thousands are awaiting your message.
(Signed) David Pfrangon Davis.

"Your songs have the power to charm that springs from a melodiousness at once natural and refined, a sincerity instantly appreciable, and a simplicity as artistic as it is rare."

Sincerely
(Signed) W. L. Hubbard.
Chicago, Oct. 4th, 1903

Dear Mrs. Bond:

"I was perfectly charmed to hear your compositions sung by yourself. It has seldom been given to me to hear the poet, composer and interpreter all in one and I wish you all the success that you so richly deserve."

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) Jean De Resake.
Paris.

"His Lullaby" is on Mme. Schumann-Heink's regular programme, which was first sung at Scranton, Woodbury and again last night at Ithaca. It has met with profound success."
